

National Red Ribbon Week

October 26 - October 30

National Red Ribbon Week is coming soon! We want BRCVPA students to continue being the leaders they are, and to help spread the drug-free message to others.

BRCVPA is having a Red-Ribbon-Week Poster Contest NOW through Friday, October 23rd.

The posters will be hung throughout the school during Red Ribbon Week. Winners will be voted on by the students, and will be announced before recess on Friday, October 30th.

There will be a 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winner for grades K-2 and a 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winner for grades 3-5.

This year's theme is "Respect Yourself. Be Drug Free."
Suggested words and themes for your posters are below.

peer-pressure	courage	drug-free	confidence
self-respect	prevention	self-discipline	dependable

All posters due to your homeroom teacher by Friday, October 23rd. Do your best, and good luck!

Please see the back of this flyer for other exciting Red Ribbon Week events taking place October 26-30.
